The Week In Society.

MY FOURTH OF JULY GIRL.

(Woman's Home Companion.)

The red is in her pouting lips,
The white on rounded brow,
The blue through curling lashes
slips
And coyly woos me now.

I know that Smith and Jones and Brown
Her colors seek to fly,
But like burnt rockets they'll come down,
Her "glorious fourth" am I.

Now in my heart her fuse she'll drop,
Her parlor match awaits.
A tiny spark will make me pop
For these united states."

And here I'll vow, by all above,
That I will aye be true
Unto the colors that I love,
The brave red, white and blue.

The Paducah music lovers were given a rare treat Tuesday evening, when Mrs. James Dryden Gruenbaum gave a beautiful vocal recital, assisted by her advanced students. This was without a doubt one of the most attractive and highly entertaining musicals ever heard here.

The chorus numbers were bright and harmonious and Mrs. Gruenbaum's splendid contralto has never been heard to a better advantage than in the "Bel Raggio" from Simiramide. In her group of songs she again captured her audience in rendering Harriet Ware's "Joy of the Morning." The trio, "Star of Love," by Bordene was harmoniously rendered by Mrs. Lyle and Misses Durrett and Thomas. Mrs. Gruenbaum and Mr. Emmett Bagby sang effectively the Donizetti duet "The Adieu." Miss Nellie Hennelberger, one of Mrs. Gruenbaum's advanced students covered herself with honors when she rendered Leloquo's famous waltz song in her true soprano voice. Mr. Bagby next sang "The Pilgrims Song" by Teichowsky, "I Hear You Calling Me," and "Peggie and Piggie" and with his powerful, well-trained and cultured voice he was given a continuous round of applause.

Mrs. Gruenbaum leaves in a few days to take up a course of musical study during the summer, in New York city.

"Foley's Kidney Pills Have Cured Me"

The above is a quotation from a letter written by H. M. Winkler, of Evansville, Ind. "I contracted a severe case of kidney trouble. My back gave out and pained me. I seemed to have lost all strength and ambition; was bothered with dizzy spells, my head would swim and specks float before my eyes. I took Foley Kidney Pills regularly and am now perfectly well and feel like a new man. Foley Kidney Pills have cured me." Gilbert's drug store.
